

For evidence that deregulation damages diversity, turn on your radio. There is hardly any diversity of opinion, or content since the relaxation of radio regulations. Please don't let this happen to the other broadcast media as well.